1. God will be our refuge, strength, and mighty fortress,
Ever-present help in our times of deep distress.
Though the mountains tremble and crumble into dust,
Though earth and seas are shaken, in God we put our trust.
Though earth and seas are shaken, in God we put our trust.

Refrain: Heaven and earth may pass away,
Your Word will never pass away.
Heaven and earth may pass away,
Your Word will never pass away.
No, no, never pass away. No, no, never pass away.

2. Nations rage and bellow, kings and empires totter,
God speaks but a Word and its thunder melts the earth.
Ever-present with us, through depth and height and length,
The Lord remains our refuge, our stronghold, and our strength.
The Lord remains our refuge, our stronghold, and our strength.
(Refrain)
 3. Streams of living water sparkle bright as crystal,
Making glad the city, the dwelling of thhe Lord.
God is its foundation, and so it never shakes.
God's strong right arm defends it as each new morning breaks.
God's strong right arm defends it as each new morning breaks.
(Refrain)

4. See God's works of power, fearsome deeds before us,
Causing wars to cease, breaking bows and shatt'ring spears.
God will be exalted, whose ways are true and just.
For God is still our refuge, in whom we put our trust.
For God is still our refuge, in whom we put our trust. (Refrain)
